

Venue Shopping Prep

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

You've found the perfect partner... now it's time to find the perfect wedding venue!

We created a worksheet detailing the most important factors to consider before venue shopping. Fill out each section before starting your venue visits.

Use the last page to list your top venue picks based on your criteria.

Budget

Having a general idea of your budget will save you time looking at and touring wedding venues that might break the bank. Write your ideal budget range:

Guest List

The number of guests attending your wedding is crucial information to know before contacting venues. Write your total expected guest count:

Venue Style

Choosing a venue style for your wedding sets the tone and atmosphere and helps guide the venue shopping process. List a few venue styles that you are interested:

Distance

Central Florida is a great location because there are so many wedding location options. List a few cities you're searching for a venue in:

Location(s)

Do you want your ceremony and reception in the same location or will the ceremony be in a religious setting and then the party to follow? If the ceremony will be in a different location from the reception, list that location:

Date

Consider the following: Availability of wedding venue dates, the weather, how much time you have to plan the wedding, and guest travel. Based on these factors list your ideal wedding date(s):

Timeline

Most experienced wedding pros recommend your ceremony start time about an hour and a half before sunset. List what time you would like your ceremony and reception to start below based upon your date preference above:

POTENTIAL VENUES

After filling out and reviewing the sections in the planning sheet, put together a list of potential venues that you are interested in visiting.
