

Find Your Wedding Priorities

Grab your fiancé, find a few quiet minutes, and use this worksheet to figure out what matters most to each of you and where you already agree.

- 1 Fold this page in half. Each of you fills out one side. (No peeking at each other's answers!)
- 2 If you could only prioritize three parts of your wedding, which would matter most to you?
- 3 Unfold, compare, and talk through where you match. Use your shared priorities to decide where to focus your budget, research, and booking first.
